President's Message

We're well into this Lions' Year and much has been accomplished. And yet, much is left to be done. The very successful golf tournament is behind us as well as participation in RAM 2007, several picnics, a cleanup of Stuartsburg Road, some excellent programs, the health fare, and a visit from DG Marty.

I look forward to more good programs, more clean-up events, birdhouses, young scientists, White Cane, and a joint Christmas party with the Lexington club just to mention a few.

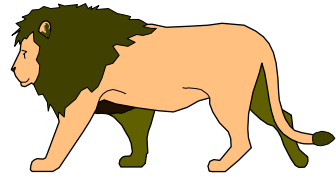

Let's all stay involved and try to always say yes when asked to serve, because We Serve.

Adopt-A-Highway

Believe it or not, these Lions actually did some work! The first two miles of Stuartsburg Road is much cleaner as a result of their efforts. Some of them were overheard saying that it was fun.

The first time always produces more trash than subsequent projects, but with a few more Lions helping, this could be completed in less than an hour.

Would you buy a used car from this man?

Maybe not, but I'll bet you will be glad that he is preparing our dinner for the regular meeting on November 15th. His Italian heritage is coming to the forefront as he fixes spaghetti like nothing you've ever tasted before.

Be sure you don't miss that meeting at the MRSC. I'm told that his pasta is the real thing, and his sauce is to die for.

MRSC Health Fare & Disability Expo

There certainly was a lot to see and learn at the health fare.

We processed 19 different people through our Sight and Hearing Unit. Although we could have handled many more, the ones we screened were very appreciative, and some of our members received valuable training time on the machines. We certainly owe a big thank you to Gloria and Dean.

The booth manned by WAS (Wintergreen Adaptive Skiing) was particularly interesting. If we know of a handicapped youngster, either this skiing program or a new one involving whitewater might be just the thing.

21st Annual Grover Smith Golf Tournament

By all counts this year's tournament was the most successful ever. Lots of individual players and teams competing made for a fun day. The food was very good, thanks in no small part to Lion Atlas and his crew.

The live auction was entertaining, and the live music as well (although some earlier electricity on Wednesday would have been nice).

Many Lions hours were spent by Lion Joe and his committee, which included most of our members.

From selling chances on the shot gun, to selling ads, mulligans, 50/50 chances, and pick-the-winner tickets, to taking pictures, to handling and delivering food and drinks, to transporting mums, to coordinating volunteers, the Buena Vista Lions really came through. Many thanks to all who participated.

"Help the Lions help the Blind"

That slogan raised $330 last Spring and, more importantly, helped show some of the people of our community that the Lions Club of Buena Vista is active in their mist.

We are planning to gather at the Food Lion in Buena Vista on Saturday, November 3rd to "do White Cane". Lion Fred is scheduling everyone he can muster for that opportunity for fund-raising and fellowship, not to mention greeting the citizens of Buena Vista and telling the Lions' story.

The Buena Vista Lions will be returning to the classrooms soon, continuing a public service to the local elementary school children. PhotoScreening™ of kindergartners to detect a variety of vision problems is one of the most rewarding projects our club promotes. A workable date is being sought.
